Caritas
AUSTRALIA

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

PROJECT COMPASSION
FOR ALL FUTURE GENERATIONS

Partnership in action

The work of Caritas Australia is only possible with the dedication, passion and tenacity of our local partners who implement the programs. They are the heroes on the ground, working tirelessly behind-the-scenes every day to create a better future for their communities.

Caritas Australia partners with the Faithful Companions of Jesus (FCJ) to support communities living in urban slums in the Philippines. FCJ runs a number of programs that include house renovating, food processing, basic literacy skills, urban gardening, upcycling and income generating activities. They also have a clinic visited weekly by a doctor and community nurse. Caritas Australia partners with Caritas Samoa to assist communities to have increased access to clean water, sanitation and hygiene to ensure human health and well-being by providing water tanks and sanitation facilities.

Caritas Australia partners with the Catholic Development Commission in Malawi through the A+ program. Since 2016, the A+ program has helped 7,397 families across Malawi improve their food security, access to basic water and sanitation, boost women's income generation and strengthen child protection.

Please donate to Project Compassion.

Together, we can help vulnerable communities face their challenges today and build a better tomorrow for all future generations.

You can donate through Project Compassion donation boxes and envelopes available from your parish, by visiting caritas.org.au/project-compassion or by calling 1800 024 413.

WEEKLY REFLECTION FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Jeremiah 31:31–34 | Ps 50:3–4. 12–5. R. v.12 | Hebrews 5:7–9 | John 12:20–33

Written by Michael McGirr

The word 'heart' occurs almost a thousand times in the Bible, more than three times as often as the word 'soul.' Perhaps this is just another item of trivia but surely it gives us a clue about Christianity. It is a religion of the heart. It gets our blood pumping.

As we approach the climax of our Lenten journey, this week's readings ask questions about our hearts. The psalm begs 'a pure heart create for me, O God.' Those words invite the Lord to come right inside us, into the very core of our being. The prophet Jeremiah quotes the Lord as saying, 'deep within them I will plant my Law, writing it on their hearts.' In other words, we won't find God's most intimate whisperings to us just in books or lectures. We will find it when we are genuinely in touch with our core, our most intimate space. God's love is inscribed on our hearts.

In his letter Fratelli Tutti, Pope Francis speaks against 'a culture of walls.' He asks us to treasure the hope found in every heart:

Hope 'speaks to us of something deeply rooted in every human heart, independently of our circumstances and historical conditioning. Hope speaks to us of a thirst, an aspiration, a longing for a life of fulfillment, a desire to achieve great things, things that fill our heart and lift our spirit to lofty realities like truth, goodness and beauty, justice and love... Hope is bold.'

The word 'caritas' means love. The work of Caritas Australia is a heartfelt response to the needs of the world, one that gives expression to our shared hope. Caritas always works in partnership with others. During Lent, as we have listened to the experience of people we have helped through our support of Project Compassion, we will have noticed that life-giving partnerships with groups on the ground in many countries make this possible.

In today's Gospel, Jesus speaks of the grain of wheat that must die to create a rich harvest. Of course, he is referring to his own passion. But there is a message here for us all. 'Anyone who loves their life will lose it.' We are called to wear our hearts on our sleeves. To be led by love for others.

The men's coffee group wish to thank Maree Buttler for the comprehensive lesson she gave us regarding the Parish Defibrillator. It was closely observed by us all. Maree is going to provide this information at the 6.00pm and 9.00 am Masses on the weekend of 20th & 21st April. Thanks again Maree for providing this necessary instruction.

If you do wish to change to electronic contributions, please advise the Parish Office of your intention so that we can make the necessary changes. Thank you for your ongoing financial support. It is greatly appreciated.

EASTER SERVICE VOLUNTEERS

YOUR PARISH NEEDS YOU!

As always, we are preparing some very special liturgies for each of our Easter Services so that everyone will experience and understand the significance of Easter.

In particular, we plan to reintroduce the large Cross to the Good Friday Service.

For this to happen, especially for the large number of people who join us to celebrate Easter, we need many more members of our parish/school community to help at each of the Masses.

We want everyone to feel welcome, to feel that they belong to an active, vibrant community, and to return home feeling they have experienced something truly moving and meaningful.

Please consider volunteering in some capacity at one or more of the services, by adding your name onto one of the lists at the back of the church or contacting the Parish Office on 70369395 or ringwoodnorth@cam.org.au

Areas where you can help include:

Cross Carriers for Good Friday
Special Ministers
Offertory Procession
Readers
Collectors
Altar Servers (particularly Holy Thursday & Good Friday)
Welcomers
Clean-up/reset team after each Mass –

We particularly need people to help set up on Saturday 23 March. Palms need to be put up & chairs need to be brought in from storage and set up. Liturgy team will be on site from 8:30am. Chair set up scheduled to start at 9am.

The Liturgy Team

Easter Services at Holy Spirit are:

Palm Sunday, 23-24 March: Saturday 6pm, Sunday 9:00am & 5:00pm

PALM SUNDAY MASSES 23 & 24 March 2024

Palm Sunday Masses will commence with blessing of palm & olive branches on the lawn at the top of the stairs and a procession into the Church. Whilst we will have palm & olive branches available at each Mass, we encourage parishioners to bring branches if they can. Thank you

Flowers for Good Friday needed!

As has become tradition in the parish, we invite parishioners to bring flowers from their gardens to venerate the Cross on Good Friday. Flowers will also be provided for anyone to use, but it is nice to have the variety and colour of many different flowers to transform the Cross to a "Tree of Life".

REFLECTION: 5th Sunday of Lent

"I will be their God and they shall be my people." - Jeremiah 31:33

What does it mean to be God's people? It means we recognize that everything we have and everything we are belongs to God. We aren't "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given us. It means we are willing to use our gifts and our lives to care for our family, our neighbors and for people we don't know, just as God cares for each of us.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION:

Celebrant:

As we move towards the most sacred time of the Church's year, we place our prayers before our heavenly Father, confident that as we accompany Jesus to Calvary, we will also share in the hope of the resurrection.

Reader:

We pray for our brothers and sisters throughout the world who are pushed to the edges of society and whose value and potential are not recognized; that their silenced voices may be raised in hope.

LORD HEAR US.

For the whole Christian community; that our faith in the power of Christ's life, death and resurrection may fill us with new and lasting hope as we face the daily reality of our own human frailty.

LORD HEAR US.

For all medical personnel, police, emergency workers and counsellors, whose daily work brings them face to face with the sadness and grief of death; that the loving hand of God will strengthen them in their respectful service of all those they assist.

LORD HEAR US.

We pray for our sisters and brothers throughout the world who are denied their basic human rights. May we stand in solidarity as a global community, working courageously to promote justice and uphold the dignity of all people.

LORD HEAR US.

We pray for all who go out of their way to bring God's love to others, especially to those most in need. We pray in gratitude for the many partners of Caritas Australia who ensure our contributions to Project Compassion reach the places they are needed.

LORD HEAR US.

We pray for those who have died recently, Brenda Robertson and those whose anniversaries of death occur about this time: Marjorie Neate, Tony Doensen, John Doensen, Decima Perera, Sandra Day, Paul Murphy, Peter Higgins, Angeloa Guliani, Mick Walsh and Enio Bordignon.

May they rest in the loving arms and peace of Christ.

LORD HEAR US.

Celebrant:

Loving God. We make these our prayers, the silent prayers of our hearts and the prayers of all your people to You, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

FIRST READING

Jeremiah 31.31-34

The days are coming when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and remember their sin no more.

A reading from the book of the prophet Jeremiah.

31 The days are surely coming, says the Lord,
when I will make a new covenant
with the house of Israel and the house of Judah.

32 It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors
when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—
a covenant that they broke,
though I was their husband,
says the Lord.

33 But this is the covenant
that I will make with the house of Israel after those days,
says the Lord:

I will put my law within them,
and I will write it on their hearts;
and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

34 No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, "Know the Lord,"
for they shall all know me,
from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord;
for I will forgive their iniquity,
and remember their sin no more.
Let him go up."

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 51.1-2, 10-11, 12-13 (R.10)

R. Create a clean heart in me, O God.

1 Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love;
according to your abundant mercy blot out my transgressions.

2 Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin. R.

10 Create in me a clean heart, O God, and put a new and right spirit within me.

11 Do not cast me away from your presence, and do not take your holy spirit from me. R.

12 Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and sustain in me a willing spirit.

13 Then I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will return to you. R.

SECOND READING

Hebrews 5.7-9

Christ learned obedience and became the source of eternal salvation for all.

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews.

7 In the days of his flesh,
Jesus offered up prayers and supplications,
with loud cries and tears,
to the one who was able to save him from death,
and he was heard because of his reverent submission.
8 Although he was a Son,
he learned obedience through what he suffered;
9 and having been made perfect,
he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him.
The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

John 12:20

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory.
If you serve me, follow me, says the Lord;
and where I am, my servant will also be.
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory.

GOSPEL

John 12.20-33

If a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it bears much fruit.

A reading from the holy gospel according to John.

20 Among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks.
21 They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to him,
"Sir, we wish to see Jesus."
22 Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus.
23 Jesus answered them,
"The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.
24 Very truly, I tell you,
unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies,
it remains just a single grain; but if it dies, it bears much fruit.
25 Those who love their life lose it,
and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life.
26 "Whoever serves me must follow me,
and where I am, there will my servant be also.
Whoever serves me, the Father will honour.
27 "Now my soul is troubled.
And what should I say — 'Father, save me from this hour'?
No, it is for this reason that I have come to this hour.
28 Father, glorify your name."
Then a voice came from heaven,
"I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again."
29 The crowd standing there heard it and said that it was thunder.
Others said, "An angel has spoken to him."
30 Jesus answered,
"This voice has come for your sake, not for mine.
31 Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out.
32 And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself."
33 Jesus said this to indicate the kind of death he was to die.
The gospel of the Lord.
