Holy Spirit Parish Vision

At Holy Spirit Parish, we are an inviting community inspired by the Holy Spirit; welcoming everyone to worship, grow, belong and serve together as Disciples of Christ.

Holy Spirit is a child safe parish. At Holy Spirit we hold the care, safety and well being of children and young people as a central and fundamental responsibility of our parish.

The Word: Please note in order to get the Parish email distributed each week, submissions for the word need to be received by 2pm Thursday. Thank you, Jenny.

Held fortnightly on a Thursday night at 5.45 pm in the Holy Spirit Chapel for 30 minutes. Please contact Kathy on 0425 852 208 for any further information. All are welcome for a very relaxing, peaceful and short meditation.

MEMORIAL MASS will be held for Debbie Neilsen on Tuesday 27th September at 11.00 am in the Church. It has been a year since Debbie's passing and many were unable to attend her funeral due to the COVID restrictions. The family would like to invite her friends, and any parishioners who were close to her heart, to the mass followed by a light lunch and refreshments where everyone can share their fond memories of Debbie. It will be a lovely and fitting tribute to remember our beautiful Debbie and the family would be honoured by your presence. Much love Russell and family. For catering purposes, could you please add your name to the sign up sheet on the word table.

All parishioners are invited to a Mass of Anointing followed by light lunch on Wednesday 21st September at 11am in the Church.

Please note: 9:15am Mass will not be celebrated in the chapel on that day.

For catering purposes, we will need to know numbers. Please fill in the sign up sheet on the word table or contact the Parish Office: ringwoodnorth@cam.org.au or 70369395 by Friday 16th September.

LORD, My God, I called to you for help and you healed me. Psalm 30:2

Cursillo

A Cursillo retreat weekend offers you the opportunity for formation through talks, meditations, discussion and prayer, led by an experienced local volunteer team.

What is Cursillo?

The Cursillo Movement has an important role in the Archdiocese, providing an avenue for the continued enrichment and deepening of our adult faith lives. Cursillo provides a sound and practical approach for energising, renewing and enlivening the faith lives of both individuals and parishes.

Cursillo is also an important means of reaching out to people who have had little or no adult faith formation and who are searching. Cursillo provides a method for people seeking to live an authentic Christian life - a blueprint which brings a renewed encounter with our Lord Jesus Christ.

I recognise the gift of Cursillo and commend Cursillo to all who are searching for a renewal and deepening of their faith.

Christopher Prowse
Catholic Archbishop of Canberra and Goulburn

In the beginning

Starting in Majorca after the Spanish Revolution, before WWII, many priests had been killed. A group of lay people began to pray, talk and work together to find a way to bring people to Christ. Their answer was short formation courses; Cursillo literally means short course in Spanish. The first Cursillo was held in 1944.

It soon spread to the Spanish mainland, then to the USA. Cursillos are held all over the world in the Catholic, Anglican and Uniting churches, under the direction of their Bishop or President. The first Catholic Cursillo in the Archdiocese of Canberra-Goulburn was held in 1966.

"Come Follow Him"

The Cursillo movement is alive and vibrant in our Archdiocese. Through the power of the Holy Spirit and the dedication of a willing community, we provide opportunities for people to "Come Follow Him" through the Cursillo experience.

What happens?

Cursillo weekends are residential retreats held over three days, separately for men and women.

Learning, praying, sharing and friendship together.

- A program of short talks by lay people and the spiritual director
- Discussions, music and other activities
- Centred on daily Eucharist and prayer

For many, after Cursillo, Christian Living takes on a new dimension with a fresh awareness of God's love and purpose for each of us.

What happens after a Cursillo?

It is possible to encounter God in many ways; the encounter is easy, following Christ afterwards is challenging. Cursillo offers Cursillistas the opportunity to continue their formation after the Cursillo weekend, if they wish.

- Regular small-group meetings to share prayer, study and action
- Larger gatherings where all Cursillistas come together for celebration and further mutual encouragement

You are invited!

Cursillo weekends usually occur annually for men and women in the Diocese.

Why not consider Christ's invitation to spend time with Him; to learn more about your Christian faith and to deepen your relationship with the Lord?

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION:

Remembering the goodness and generosity of our loving Father, we bring forward these prayers to the Lord.

We pray for our Church; that all may experience the gentle love and goodness of the Father through the thoughts, deeds and actions of all the faithful to all they may encounter in their daily lives.

Lord hear us.

Lord hear our prayer.

We pray that employers will deal justly and compassionately with their employees, recognising their need for respect and fair working conditions. Lord hear us.

Lord hear our prayer.

We pray that those in positions of financial control will spend and invest wisely and bear in mind that their actions should be in the best interests of their respective communities.

Lord hear us.

Lord hear our prayer.

We pray for those coping with hardship and financial stress and for communities in need throughout the world. May we be generous in our assistance both financially and emotionally.

Lord hear us.

Lord hear our prayer.

We pray for special blessings on those who are seriously ill and unable to join us in worship. Give them and their families comfort in the knowledge that we are with them in prayerful spirit as we wait in hope that they will be healed.

Lord hear us.

Lord hear our prayer.

We pray for those who have died recently, Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth and for those whose anniversaries of death occur at this time: Helen Graham, Caterina D'Amore, Marian Prowse, Suzie Vita, Sofie Rewer, Syd Wheatley, Timothy Moran and Ian Allerson.

May they rest in the loving arms and peace of Christ. Lord hear us.

Lord hear our prayer.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

St. Alphonsus Liguori

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"No servant can serve two masters. He will hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon (wealth)." Luke 16:13

Jesus knows that for many of us, God and money run "neck and neck" as top priority. Is money a "god" that you put before God? Giving money to support the Church and other charity is a pillar of our faith, just like attending Mass every Sunday and participating in parish ministry. Giving money frees us from becoming a slave to money. It increases our dependence on God and our trust that God will provide all that we need

FIRST READING

Amos 8.4-7

The Lord's word against those who buy the poor for silver.

A reading from the book of the prophet Amos.

4 Hear this, you that trample on the needy, and bring to ruin the poor of the land, 5 saying, "When will the new moon be over so that we may sell grain; and the sabbath, so that we may offer wheat for sale? We will measure out less and charge more, and tamper with the scales, 6 buying the poor for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals, and selling the sweepings of the wheat." 7 The Lord has sworn by the pride of Jacob: "Surely I will never forget any of their deeds."

The word of the Lord.

A period of silence is observed after the reading.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 113.1-2, 4-6, 7-8 (R.1a, 7a)

R. Praise the Lord who lifts up the poor.

1 Praise, O servants of the Lord; praise the name of the Lord.

2 Blessed be the name of the Lord from this time on and forevermore. R.

4 The Lord is high above all nations, and his glory above the heavens.

5 Who is like the Lord our God, who is seated on high,

6 who looks far down on the heavens and the earth? R.

7 The Lord raises the poor from the dust, and lifts the needy from the ash heap,

8 to make them sit with princes, with the princes of his people. R.

SECOND READING

1 Timothy 2.1-7++

Let prayer be offered to God for all, for God wishes everyone to be saved.

A reading from the first letter of Paul to Timothy.

My dearly beloved, 1 I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for everyone, 2 for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. 3 This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, 4 who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. 5 For there is one God; there is also one mediator between God and the human race, Christ Jesus, himself human, 6 who gave himself a ransom for all; this was attested at the right time. 7 For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle, a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth. I am telling the truth, I am not lying.

The word of the Lord.

A period of silence is observed after the reading.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, Alleluia

Jesus Christ was rich but he became poor,
to make you rich out of his poverty .

Alleluia

GOSPEL

Luke 16.1-13

You cannot serve God and wealth.

A reading from the holy gospel according to Luke.

1 Jesus said to the disciples, "There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that the manager was squandering his property. 2 So the rich man summoned him and said to him, 'What is this that I hear about you? Give me an accounting of your management, because you cannot be my manager any longer.' 3 "Then the manager said to himself, 'What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. 4 I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes.' 5 "So, summoning his master's debtors one by one, he asked the first, 'How much do you owe my master?' 6 He answered, 'A hundred jugs of olive oil.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty.' 7 Then he asked another, 'And how much do you owe?' He replied, 'A hundred containers of wheat.' He said to him, 'Take your bill and make it eighty.' 8 "And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. 9 "And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal homes. ¶ 756 YEAR C 10 "Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. 11 If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? 12 And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own? 13 "No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth."

The gospel of the Lord.
