Migrant and Refugee Sunday 24th-25th September

In celebration of Migrant and Refugee Sunday, let us welcome Deacon George Piech-Meat at 6:00 pm and 9:00 am Masses. After fleeing war-torn Sudan and spending two years in Egypt, Deacon George and his young family came to Australia as refugees in 2004. He has since gained a Bachelor of Theology degree and now works as chaplain of South Sudanese Catholic community and Deacon at St. Mary's Parish, Dandenong

Prayer

Lord, make us bearers of hope,
so that where there is darkness,
your light may shine,
and where there is discouragement,
confidence in the future may be reborn.

Lord, make us instruments of your justice,
so that where there is exclusion, fraternity may flourish,
and where there is greed, a spirit of sharing may grow.

Lord, make us builders of your Kingdom,
together with migrants and refugees and with all who dwell on the peripheries.

Lord, let us learn how beautiful it is to live together as brothers and sisters. Amen.

Cursillo

A Cursillo retreat weekend offers you the opportunity for formation through talks, meditations, discussion and prayer, led by an experienced local volunteer team.

What is Cursillo?

The Cursillo Movement has an important role in the Archdiocese, providing an avenue for the continued enrichment and deepening of our adult faith lives. Cursillo provides a sound and practical approach for energising, renewing and enlivening the faith lives of both individuals and parishes.

Cursillo is also an important means of reaching out to people who have had little or no adult faith formation and who are searching. Cursillo provides a method for people seeking to live an authentic Christian life - a blueprint which brings a renewed encounter with our Lord Jesus Christ.

I recognise the gift of Cursillo and commend Cursillo to all who are searching for a renewal and deepening of their faith.

Christopher Prowse
Catholic Archbishop of Canberra and Goulburn

In the beginning

Starting in Majorca after the Spanish Revolution, before WWII, many priests had been killed. A group of lay people began to pray, talk and work together to find a way to bring people to Christ. Their answer was short formation courses; Cursillo literally means short course in Spanish. The first Cursillo was held in 1944.

It soon spread to the Spanish mainland, then to the USA. Cursillos are held all over the world in the Catholic, Anglican and Uniting churches, under the direction of their Bishop or President. The first Catholic Cursillo in the Archdiocese of Canberra-Goulburn was held in 1966.

"Come Follow Him"

The Cursillo movement is alive and vibrant in our Archdiocese. Through the power of the Holy Spirit and the dedication of a willing community, we provide opportunities for people to "Come Follow Him" through the Cursillo experience.

What happens?

Cursillo weekends are residential retreats held over three days, separately for men and women.

Learning, praying, sharing and friendship together.

- A program of short talks by lay people and the spiritual director
- Discussions, music and other activities
- Centred on daily Eucharist and prayer

For many, after Cursillo, Christian Living takes on a new dimension with a fresh awareness of God's love and purpose for each of us.

What happens after a Cursillo?

It is possible to encounter God in many ways; the encounter is easy, following Christ afterwards is challenging. Cursillo offers Cursillistas the opportunity to continue their formation after the Cursillo weekend, if they wish.

- Regular small-group meetings to share prayer, study and action
- Larger gatherings where all Cursillistas come together for celebration and further mutual encouragement

You are invited!

Cursillo weekends usually occur annually for men and women in the Diocese.

Why not consider Christ's invitation to spend time with Him; to learn more about your Christian faith and to deepen your relationship with the Lord?

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION:

Sisters and Brothers. It is the Lord who keeps faith for ever. As we give witness to the values of the source of all life, we turn to God in trust.

For Pope Francis and the universal Church. May we build the Reign of God alongside migrants, refugees and all who are on the peripheries of our world. Lord hear us.

Lord hear our prayer.

For our government and civil leaders. May they prioritise care and compassion for those who seek a welcome in our land, release those who are unjustly imprisoned and create a society of inclusion and equality. Lord hear us.

Lord hear our prayer.

For those who have migrated to Australia and their families. May they not be despised or ignored but appreciated for their gifts and invited to share their lives and experiences.

Lord hear us.

Lord hear our prayer.

For those who have come to Australia seeking asylum or safety. May they be treated with gentleness, supported to heal from their trauma and embraced in their rich diversity.

Lord hear us.

Lord hear our prayer.

For our local communities. May we demonstrate Gospel values as we overturn injustices and lift up those who are bowed down.

Lord hear us.

Lord hear our prayer.

We pray for those who have died recently, Stan Fisher, and for those whose anniversaries of death occur at this time: Bill Walker, John Snaidero, Marjorie Edgell, Betty Tay, Brian and Joy Quirk, Maria Police, Anne Brophy, Harry Lambert, Bryce Davies, Silvano Nisi, Susan Molyneaux, Betty Willis, Genevieve Hurtell and Robert Schell. May those who have fought the good fight enter the joy of eternal life, revealed by God, the blessed and only Ruler of all. Lord hear us.

Lord hear our prayer.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

St. Alphonsus Liguori

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"My child, remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented. Moreover, between us and you a great chasm is established..." Luke 16:25-26

When God created the world He declared that it was good and He gave it to all mankind for us to enjoy. However, over the years we have created a chasm between those who have great gifts and those who do not. In today's Gospel we see that with our own generosity we must bridge that gap between those who have much and those who have little or we may find ourselves on the wrong side of the chasm in the next life

FIRST READING

Amos 6.1a, 4-7

*The carousing of those at ease will pass away:
they will head the line of exiles.*

A reading from the book of the prophet Amos.

Thus says the Lord, the God of hosts:

1 “Alas for those who are at ease in Zion,
and for those who feel secure on Mount Samaria!
4 “Alas for those who lie on beds of ivory,
and lounge on their couches,
and eat lambs from the flock,
and calves from the stall;
5 who sing idle songs to the sound of the harp,
and like David improvise on instruments of music;
6 who drink wine from bowls,
and anoint themselves with the finest oils,
but are not grieved over the ruin of Joseph!
7 “Therefore they shall now be the first to go into exile,
and the revelry of those who lie in ease shall pass away.

The word of the Lord.

A period of silence is observed after the reading.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 146.6c-7, 8-9a, 9b-10 (R.1)

R. Praise the Lord, my soul!

6 It is the Lord who keeps faith forever, 7 who executes justice for the oppressed;
who gives food to the hungry. The Lord sets the prisoners free. R.

8 The Lord opens the eyes of the blind and lifts up those who are bowed down;
the Lord loves the righteousM 9 and watches over the strangers. R.

The Lord upholds the orphan and the widow, but the way of the wicked he brings to ruin.

10 The Lord will reign forever, your God, O Zion, for all generations. R.

SECOND READING

1 Timothy 6.11-16

As you await our Lord's return in glory, keep his commandments perfectly.

A reading from the first letter of Paul to Timothy.

11 As for you, Timothy, man of God;
pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, gentleness.
12 Fight the good fight of the faith; take hold of the eternal life, to which you were called and for which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses.
13 In the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who in his testimony before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, 14 I charge you to keep the commandment without spot or blame until the manifestation of our Lord Jesus Christ, which he will bring about at the right time.
15 He is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords.
16 It is he alone who has immortality and dwells in unapproachable light, whom no one has ever seen or can see; to him be honour and eternal dominion. Amen.

The word of the Lord.

A period of silence is observed after the reading.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, Alleluia

Jesus Christ was rich but he became poor, to make you rich out of his poverty.

Alleluia

GOSPEL

Luke 16.19-31

*You received good things, but Lazarus received evil:
now he is comforted, while you are in agony.*

A reading from the holy gospel according to Luke.

Jesus told this parable to those among the Pharisees who loved money:

19 "There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day.

20 And at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores,

21 who longed to satisfy his hunger with what fell from the rich man's table;
even the dogs would come and lick his sores.

22 "The poor man died and was carried away by the angels to be with Abraham.
The rich man also died and was buried.

23 In Hades, where he was being tormented,
he looked up and saw Abraham far away with Lazarus by his side.

24 He called out,
'Father Abraham, have mercy on me,
and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am in agony in these flames.'

25 "But Abraham said,
'Child, remember that during your lifetime you received your good things,
and Lazarus in like manner evil things;
but now he is comforted here, and you are in agony.

26 Besides all this,
between you and us a great chasm has been fixed,
so that those who might want to pass from here to you cannot do so, and no one can cross from there to us.'

27 "The man who had been rich said,
'Then, father, I beg you to send Lazarus to my father's house—

28 for I have five brothers—that he may warn them, so that they will not also come into this place of torment.'

29 "Abraham replied,
'They have Moses and the prophets; they should listen to them.'

30 He said,
'No, father Abraham;
but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent.'

31 Abraham said to him,
'If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.'"

The gospel of the Lord.
