

The Word WEEKLY BULLETIN

Parishes of Holy Spirit, St Anne & St Gerard.

2nd Sunday of Advent 4-5 December 2021

God of our waiting,
We light these candles to remind us that John the Baptist calls us to prepare for the coming of Jesus.

We pray that you may deepen our compassion so that our hearts will be open to serve you in all peoples

An invitation into an Advent of peace, prayer, hope and gladness

Second Sunday of Advent

Advent is a four week season of preparation for the coming of Christ at Christmas and it always has a theme of looking towards the future coming of Christ at the end times.
In what ways are you preparing a way for the Lord to come into your life?

Use the Advent Wreath as a focus for prayer.
Pray for all those who need to hear the word of God in their lives.
This week, find ways to be 'good news' to others,
especially those who are sick, alienated or marginalized.

2nd Sunday of Advent - Luke 3:1-6

3:1 In the fifteenth year of the reign of Emperor Tiberius, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod was ruler of Galilee, and his brother Philip ruler of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias ruler of Abilene,
2 during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John son of Zechariah in the wilderness.
3 He went into all the region around the Jordan, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins,
4 as it is written in the book of the words of the prophet Isaiah, "The voice of one crying out in the wilderness: 'Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.'
5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be made low, and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways made smooth;
6 and all flesh shall see the salvation of God.'"

REFLECTION: Luke writing about John the Baptist's ministry places the events in the context of time and history. This is first century Palestine. God's message is proclaimed in a world where many voices clamour to be heard.

Whose voice are we listening to?

God is making the rough places into a plain, but we are called to prepare the way.

There is a harvest of righteousness when God brings his word to completion. This gives us hope.

We never complete our mission in life – "We may never see the end results, but that is the difference between the master builder and the worker. We are workers not master builders..." Bishop Oscar Romero.

A few moments of silence

Last week Father Arsenio reminded us that we begin the Church's new year today, the First Sunday of Advent. And as a way of marking that new year, we shall be asking you to take a moment of personal reflection after each of the 2 readings before the Gospel. This silence is for each of us to reflect on what God is inviting us to in the reading, and how we might want to respond. So, after the First and Second Reading, the reader will pause for about 20 seconds before continuing.

Christmas volunteers needed!

To prepare for our Christmas Masses, we need volunteers for various roles. Christmas Masses will be celebrated on Christmas Eve: 5pm (Fully Vaccinated); 7:30pm (Fully Vaccinated) and 10:30pm (Fully Vaccinated). There will be Carol singing from 10pm on Christmas Eve. Masses on Christmas Day will be celebrated at 9am (Fully Vaccinated) and 11am (Vaccination Status Unknown with a maximum of 50). As always, we are looking for people to assist with roles in the Masses, however, we also need volunteers to help with setting up the church. In particular, we need help on Sunday 12th December after 9am Mass to erect the Nativity Scene, and Sunday 19th December to set up extra chairs.

If you can help with anything, please add your name to the sign up sheets.

Thank you, the Liturgy Team.

Thank you.

My family and I would to thank everyone for their calls, messages, cards and flowers on the passing of my darling husband Brian. Your caring was of great comfort and very much appreciated.
Pam Hegarty.

RCIA Journey 2021

Next weekend (12th December) will see the reception into the Catholic faith of our Catechumen, Deborah Major, after many months of journeying through the RCIA program at Holy Spirit. When we first met up in November last year, we had virtually no idea of the challenges that would confront us as we moved through the program, but credit to our Deborah, she stuck through it and carried on to now be well and truly ready to become a full member of the Catholic Faith.

The whole of the journey was completed online because of the COVID restrictions, which did present some challenges, but the RCIA team now feels that she is absolutely ready to become part of the Catholic community. She deserves all praise and encouragement for her perseverance and single mindedness in wanting to be part of our community. We would ask the Holy Spirit community to keep this special person very much in our prayers and to welcome her wholeheartedly into our midst. As with our last few RCIA candidates, she has shown great resilience, but will need our focused support as she begins her journey into her new life of faith.

The Australian Catholic Bishops Conference has welcomed the introduction of the Religious Discrimination Bill, which will provide basic human rights protections for Australians of all faiths and none to express their beliefs. Archbishop Peter A Comensoli, chair of the Bishops Commission for Life, Family and Public Engagement, has commended the bill, saying it offers 'a positive expression of religious freedom' that will be 'an important progression towards parity with other anti-discrimination laws in Australia'. Overview

Caritas Ambassador

As a Caritas Ambassador, it's my role to connect the local Catholic community to the mission of Caritas.

I am responsible for promoting the work of Caritas Australia within the parish and schools where possible through advocacy and relationship building.

I am appointed by the Caritas Australia in communication with the Parish Priest.

For this role, I need to be committed to:

- the mission of Caritas Australia (CA) in our quest to end poverty and injustice through the realisation of human dignity for all people
- the principles of Catholic Social Teaching which underpin our work, such as dignity of the human person and the common good
- our Code of Conduct which outlines the professional behaviour that is expected of me
- the safeguarding of children and vulnerable adults in line with laws, standards and Caritas Australia's policies and procedures

In my role, I aim to:

- At a minimum, speak during Lent about the annual Caritas' Project Compassion campaign using provided materials.
- If able to, connect with schools in the parish to encourage them to register for on-line Caritas Conversations and use the Caritas Justice Resources.

What Caritas will do for you:

- Connect you to our International program staff through on-line events, so you can engage with the Project Compassion stories personally.
- Connect you into a local network of other Caritas Ambassadors.
- Provide a Caritas welcoming and commission ceremony and provide resources for your local parish to do the same.

For this role I need to have:

- A strong commitment to the mission of CA, the ethos of the Catholic Church and Catholic Social Teaching
- Adequate organisational and interpersonal skills
- A preparedness to work collaboratively with your Parish Priest and Caritas Diocesan Director

In my role, I will interact primarily with:

- The Caritas Diocesan Director for my diocese
- Clergy and parish representatives and volunteers – to promote the mission of CA
- Schools in the parish /education representatives – to promote the mission of CA

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION:

Dear Friends in Christ. The Lord will deliver us from all our sorrows and set us free. Let us ask him for the grace to live in freedom.

For the Church of today; that she may be blessed with wise and inspirational leaders, teachers and preachers. Lord hear us.

LORD HEAR OUR PRAYER

We pray for our Parish and Community; may we open our hearts to Jesus and allow him into every aspect of our daily lives. Lord hear us.

LORD HEAR OUR PRAYER

For children and adolescents dealing with illness and adversity in their lives. Give them courage and faith that the Lord will guide them through difficult times. Lord hear us.

LORD HEAR OUR PRAYER

We pray for those experiencing loneliness and sadness leading up to Christmas. Help them discover companionship and happiness and a sense of belonging amongst the community at this time.

Lord hear us.

LORD HEAR OUR PRAYER.

We pray for the "Take the Way of the Gospel" journey towards missionary renewal, humbly acknowledging that it will take time and effort. May the courage and guidance of the Holy Spirit help us adapt to current and ever changing realities. Lord hear us.

LORD HEAR OUR PRAYER

For those who have died recently and those whose anniversaries of death occur at this time:

Doro Barro, Denis Cove, Peter Skuskavnieks, John Patrick, Desmond Gill, Bernie O'Callaghan, Josie O'Sullivan and Peter Konynenburg. May they rest in the loving arms and peace of Christ. Lord hear us.

LORD HEAR OUR PRAYER

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

St. Alphonsus Liguori

REFLECTION 2nd Sunday of Advent

"And this is my prayer: that your love may increase ever more and more in knowledge and every kind of perception, to discern what is of value..." (PHILIPPIANS 1:9-10)

During the Christmas shopping season it is easy to get caught up in the frenzy of buying gifts. But, is that "gift" truly an expression of your love for the other person. Or, are you just fulfilling your "obligation" to give them something? To grow in friendship with someone, you need to spend time with them, learn what is of value to them. Maybe this year, buy less "stuff" and spend more time with those you love.

FIRST READING

Baruch 5.1-9

God will show your splendour, O Jerusalem, everywhere under heaven.

A reading from the book of the prophet Baruch.

- 1 Take off the garment of your sorrow and affliction, O Jerusalem, and put on forever the beauty of the glory from God.
- 2 Put on the robe of the righteousness that comes from God; put on your head the diadem of the glory of the Everlasting;
- 3 for God will show your splendour everywhere under heaven.
- 4 For God will give you evermore the name, "Righteous Peace, Godly Glory."
- 5 Arise, O Jerusalem, stand upon the height; look toward the east, and see your children gathered from west and east at the word of the Holy One, rejoicing that God has remembered them.
- 6 For they went out from you on foot, led away by their enemies; but God will bring them back to you, carried in glory, as on a royal throne.
- 7 For God has ordered that every high mountain and the everlasting hills be made low and the valleys filled up, to make level ground, so that Israel may walk safely in the glory of God.
- 8 The woods and every fragrant tree have shaded Israel at God's command.
- 9 For God will lead Israel with joy, in the light of his glory, with the mercy and righteousness that come from him.

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 126.1-2a, 2b-3, 4-5, 6 (R.3)

R. The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

- 1 When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion, we were like those who dream.
- 2 Then our mouth was filled with laughter, and our tongue with shouts of joy. R.

Then it was said among the nations, "The Lord has done great things for them."

- 3 The Lord has done great things for us, and we rejoiced. R.

- 4 Restore our fortunes, O Lord, like the watercourses in the desert of the Negev.
- 5 May those who sow in tears reap with shouts of joy. R.

- 6 Those who go out weeping, bearing the seed for sowing, shall come home with shouts of joy, carrying their sheaves. R.

SECOND READING

Philippians 1.3-6, 8-11

In the day of Christ, may you be pure and blameless.

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Philippians.

My brothers and sisters,

³ I thank my God every time I remember you, ⁴ constantly praying with joy in every one of my prayers for all of you, ⁵ because of your sharing in the gospel from the first day until now.

⁶ I am confident of this, that the one who began a good work among you will bring it to completion by the day of Jesus Christ.

⁸ For God is my witness, how I long for all of you with the compassion of Christ Jesus.

⁹ And this is my prayer, that your love may overflow more and more with knowledge and full insight

¹⁰ so that in the day of Christ you may be pure and blameless,

¹¹ having produced the harvest of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ for the glory and praise of God.

The word of the Lord.
